By Mike Connolly

Dear Mr. C.: I don't think you're a liar, so I guess you must be color-blind. You said that Peter O'Toole's wife, Sian Phillips, is blonde. Every photograph I've ever seen of her indicates she's a brunette. Where did you get the idea that she is blonde?—Puzzled, Short Hills, N.J.

Dear Mike: Why does Soupy Sales' career seem to be slipping? I miss him terribly. — Angel Blanding, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Angel: Blame his fickle fans, who started hairdresser, who knows for sure.

dialling out the pie-thrower in favor of "Hullabaloo" and the like. He has a movie coming out called "Birds Do It" and has also signed to headline the Labor Day show on Atlantic City's Steel Pier, slinging salt-water-taffey pies.

Sir: Why did the highly-touted romance of Joyce Jameson and Bob Vaughn break up? — Eleanor M. Seizinger, Webster, N.Y.

Dear Eleanor: He says she threw him over but won't say why. She says her new beau, Peter Fields, may be the reason.

Dear Mr. C.: Gretz Garbo never made many pictures. Why does her income continue to increase? — L. A. Andersen, Lakeport, Calif.

Dear L.A.: Clever investments of the bankroll she made at M-G-M, when taxes weren't as high as they are now.

Dear Mr. C.: "The Man from U.N.C.L.E." is starting repeats. Does this mean it will soon go off or is the studio just starting some new segments? — Andrea Cooper, Toms River, N.J.

Dear Andrea: It isn't going off, they're starting new segments for the new season, and it will also have a sister series, "The Girl from U.N.C.L.E.," starring Stefanie Powers.

Dear Mike C.: As a long-time devotee of the hard-boiled detective story school, I am impressed by the "Harper" cast's rendition of John Ross McDonald's great story. However, one question—what "bright boy" thought it necessary to change the name of Paul Newman's central character from "Lew Archer" to "Lew Harper" and what was his thinking in taking that liberty? — Tom Ehrman, Monterey, Calif.

Dear Tom: The studio thought some aging ticket-buyers might mistake it for an old serial called "The Green Archer."

Sir: I see where the Cowboy Hall of Fame 1966 Wrangler Award goes to Mike Anderson Jr. for "The Sons of Katie Elder." The judges must be a bunch of dudes. I didn't think his riding was noteworthy in the slightest. Did you? — Dean Beyer, Laramie, Wyo.

Dear Dean: Laramie's a hard-riding town, I hear, so I won't challenge you. But Mike seems to think he deserves it, since he didn't know a harness from a fetlock till he made the movie. Besides, the Hall of Fame folk are running out of candidates for the honor. I mean — how many times can John Wayne win it?

Dear Old Foggy: I think you're sick, I really do, coming out like that and claiming cher (of Sonny and Cher) wears dresses — when all we Mods know she never wears anything except her own flared-from-the-knee-down slacks outfits. Move over, ol'

Dad, for the Takeover Generation. — Lorraine Simonian, Indianapolis, Ind.

Dear Lorraine: I admit I boot one occasionally but not this time, baby. Sonny and Cher are shooting "Good Times" at Paramount. I was having lunch in the studio commissary the other day when Cher made one of the season's swingin'est grand entrances — wearing a very brief, strictly non-Cher-type bikini. And may I add, with gams as gorgeous as that, Cher should never again wear slacks?
